CRIMINAL NO. 1:CR-01-394

v.

JAMES JOHNSON

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

Before the court is a document filed pro se by Defendant entitled “Motion to Supplement Claim 1 with Additional Legal Support.” This motion pertains to Defendant’s § 2255 petition now pending before the court. It appears to the court that the document does not amend any claim but is merely legal argument in support of Defendant’s claims. On June 15, 2005, Defendant was appointed legal counsel; therefore, all documents must be filed by counsel. The motion, while filed of record, will not be considered by the court and will be deemed stricken.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

- 1) Document 101 in the captioned action is deemed to be stricken.
- 2) All future documents shall be filed through counsel.
- 3) The Clerk of Court shall send a copy of document 101 to counsel for defendant.
